INFORMATION FOR CONTRIBUTORS

David B. Gracy II Award

A $350 prize is presented annually to the author of the best article in Provenance judged by the Editorial Board. Named for David B. Gracy II, founder and first editor of Georgia Archive, now Provenance, the award began in 1990 with volume VIII. The 2020 award went to Sarah Colson, “Chain of Custody: Access and Control of State Archival Records in Public-Private Partnerships.”

Editorial Policy

Members of the Society of Georgia Archivists and others with professional interest in the aims of the society are invited to submit manuscripts for consideration to Provenance. Manuscripts and related correspondence should be addressed to the Editor (provenance@soga.org). Review materials and related correspondence should be sent to the Reviews Editor (reviews_provenance@soga.org). The Editorial Board evaluates submitted manuscripts in terms of appropriateness, scholarly worth, and clarity of writing. Contributors should not submit manuscripts simultaneously for publication in any other journal. Only manuscripts that have not been previously published will be accepted, and authors must agree not to publish elsewhere, without explicit written permission, a paper submitted to and accepted by Provenance. Authors will receive a PDF version of their article. For additional information visit:

<http://digitalcommons.kennesaw.edu/provenance/>.

Information for Contributors

Letters to the editor that include pertinent and constructive comments or criticisms of articles or reviews recently published by Provenance are welcome. Ordinarily, such letters should not exceed 300 words. Manuscripts should be submitted as Word documents. Text, references, and footnotes should conform to copyright regulations and to accepted scholarly standards. Provenance uses The Chicago Manual of Style 16th edition as its style standard. Use of terms which have special meaning for archivists, manuscript curators, and records managers should conform to the definitions in the Dictionary of Archives Terminology accessible at <https://dictionary.archivists.org/>
